Hello,

I am experiencing a pattern of malicious, differential mistreatment as a customer at a Target Store location. In concise summary at this time:

Today (12122019), I was accosted without cause or provocation by a security guard named Gary in the restroom of Target Location on Riverside Blvd. in Sacramento, Ca. He committed acts which constituted at least an attempt to false-imprison with illegal restraint by blocking my exit from the restroom without cause. He then stalked and harassed to prevent me from putting my backpack on with an extremely insane, overzealous evacuation from the premises.

These acts were with malice intent without any disruption to flow of business by myself. They were entirely arbitrary and capricious. AV evidence will most certainly corroborate! I was highly offended by his affectatious implications of my appropriate behavior, and as defamation and false accusation in public. Also, he offended by his overzealous, hypervigilant call for security assistance to prejudicially and maliciously preclude myself from the store and his false rumoring to his cohort (who seemed to be superior) that I smoked meth and vandalized the restroom as I overheard while departing. AV footage will certainly confirm that these acts would be entirely impossible by time-constraint. He also committed criminal acts of, by such harassment and unprovoked stalking, provocation to fight (disorderly conduct). I did speak a complaint about these acts while being molested by these perpetrators, and that their radios worn are constantly blaring on their persons, throughout the store, as noise pollution and public nuisance whenever I am in the store, either conducting activities in my affairs in the Starbuck's dining area, or by excessive, inter-communicating (and audibly about myself) surveillance when I use the restroom.

surveillance when I use the restroom.

This is after a similar incident two nights previous by a young punk of a loose canon for a security guard. He has repeatedly harassed with an inappropriate attitude. On this occasion, he accosted, suddenly, immediately after I connected to wifi to check weather. Just prior, I was walking out, and it unexpectedly was drizzling. This was apprx. 10:00 PM on 12102019. He suddenly pounced toward myself sitting in a chair, harassed with verbose, undesired conversation about himself. It seemed delusional. First, he forcefully interrogated, "What are you doing?" He then pointed out that he did not have a name-tag after asking if I remembered his name from an earlier occasion when he harassed my time with undesired attention coercing verbiage about having a bad respiratory infection himself while sitting green mucus. He began a long discourse, disturbing my concentration while I was busy, that he was named (Jedediah)(sic) after a religious, dangerous, tough man who historically was first to map California. I did not care to hear when I was busy. He harassingly invaded my personal space, inappropriately touch personal space, inappropriately touch, threatening to illegally seize my property(cellphone and case).

I am certain, and per proof possessed, that these acts were with malice intent in collusion with organized criminal enemies to corruptly abuse... that are hindered in a criminal conspiracy with other entities. I have moderately proprietized recently for legal activities in wifi they are hostile to. I did experience evidenced hacking meanwhile at this location.

I demand AV footage at location be saved and preserved for legal matters both civil and criminal. I hereby request it! The incident occurred sometime around 1:00 PM, 12/12/2019. Please deliver by email attachment.

P.S.: This needed to be hurried. I am overburdened by the excessive harassment over a long time of background to complaints. I am very busy.

I need to send a revision. Malicious intruders keep remotely modifying what I type at wifi locations (including the Target).

Hello,

I am experiencing a pattern of malicious, differential mistreatment as a customer at a Target Store location. In concise summary at this time:

Today (12/22/2019), I was accosted without cause or provocation by a security guard named Gary in the restroom of Target Location on Riverside Blvd. in Sacramento, Ca.
